INSURES LOVE AND A HAPPY HOME.

L. W. KNAPP, M. D.

How many men may quickly cure himself after years of suffering from sexual weakness, vitality, night losses, varicocele, etc., and enlarge small weak organs to full size and vigor. Simply send your name and address to Dr. L. W. Knapp, 223 Hull building, Detroit, Mich., and he will gladly send the free receipt with full directions so that any man may easily cure himself at home. This is certainly a most generous offer and the following extracts taken from his daily mail show what men think of his generosity.

Dear Sir:—Please accept my sincere thanks for yours of recent date. I have given your treatment a thorough test and the benefit has been extraordinary. It has completely braced me up. I am just as vigorous as when a boy and you cannot realize how happy I am.

Dear Sir:—Your method worked beautifully. Results were exactly what I needed. Strength and vigor have completely returned and enlargement is entirely satisfactory.

Dear Sir:—Yours was received and I had no trouble in making use of the receipt as directed and can truthfully say it is a boon to weak men. I am greatly improved in size, strength and vigor.

All correspondence is strictly confidential, mailed in plain sealed envelope. The receipt is free for the asking and he wants every man to have it.

A Kopje.

No one who has not seen a kopje, says a South African, can easily realize it. It is not a hill so much as the stump of a hill—what is left of it after ages of denudation—but the special feature of it is that it is almost invariably covered with a breastwork of boulders. Tropical torrents have washed away the earth and all the solid components of the rock, and what is left consists of heaps and lines of detached masses of sandstone, limestone or granite. The kopjes are the rock's fortifications, and he has many a number of them.

Stuckey Surrenders.

CHICAGO, S. C., March 28.—John K. Stuckey, the slayer of John Sevier, at Spartanburg, voluntarily surrendered to the state penitentiary authorities. It is his intention to serve out the ten years' sentence imposed upon him for his deed. He still asserts his innocence. He lives a large, sturdy business at his home, and is being managed by his two children. Stuckey's wife and two children reside in that city.

Bash Took Morphine.

CHICAGO, Ga., March 28.—Jim Bash, a well known young man, attempted suicide yesterday. He had been on a spree, and was despondent. He took three grains of morphine and an ounce of brandy. Dr. J. E. Walker was called in and saved his life by prompt treatment.

PERSONALITIES.

Lord Salisbury has an antipathy for tobacco smoke, and smoking is strictly forbidden to guests in those apartments at Hatfield House which are occupied by his lordship.

Senator Hale of Maine cherishes among his curios a rough walking stick which was once the property of Lincoln. It came into Mr. Hale's hands through his father, who was a friend of Lincoln.

Cronwright Schreiner of Cape Town, who has arrived in England as an anti-slavery refugee, originally bore the family name of Cronwright, but upon marriage took that of his wife, Olive Schreiner, the novelist.

The citizens of Atlanta are much pleased at the selection of Charles A. Collier of that city as a commissioner to the Paris exposition. He has been mayor of the city and was president of the Atlanta exposition.

At the last meeting of the American Unitarian association Willard Bartlett of Brooklyn, justice of the New York supreme court, was elected vice president of the organization, succeeding the late Dorman B. Eaton.

Mrs. Patterson, daughter of ex-President Andrew Johnson, is to donate land for a park to surround the grave of the ex-president at Greenville, Tenn., and asks that the national government assume control of the park.

Representative Littlefield of Maine is in favor of the prohibition laws of that state and was therefore somewhat embarrassed when, at a chaire party in Washington the other night, he won for the first prize a handsome beer stein.

The portrait of Emperor William which Professor Hubert Herkimer is painting will be ready for exhibition at the big Berlin art exposition early this spring. The pose and treatment will be entirely new, and the emperor has left all to the artist.

Senator Hoar always speaks from notes which he has made at first at odd moments on envelopes and all sorts of scraps of paper. These he carefully sorts in thinking out the whole of his speech, but his final delivery is made from the original notes.

Antonio de Navarro, husband of Mary Anderson, is busy writing short stories for the magazines. In one of the recent English periodicals he has published a little story called "Love's Byways." The scenes of his stories are generally laid in Italy and on the Riviera.

Thomas D. Pile, the new lord mayor of Dublin, is a patriot of openly avowed Nationalist principles. He has been so very politic and conciliating that he is popular with all classes of people, no matter of what political opinion. Before being elected to the high office of executive of the Irish capital he was the high sheriff of Dublin.

Senator Deboe of Kentucky wears the heaviest and biggest dog spectacles of any United States senator. They are really ponderous as spectacles go. The hooked bars that run from the crystal disks to the ears appear to spectators in the galleries as about a quarter of an inch wide, and the bridge and frame seem to be unusually broad and thick.

Eugene J. Hall, the poet and publisher, says that one dose of Foley's Honey and Tar restored his voice when hoarseness threatened to prevent his lecture at Central Music Hall, Chicago. Nothing else as good.—W. A. D'Alemberte.

Testimonial From Judge Gaston.

GREENVILLE, Ala., Aug. 10, 1899.

I take great pleasure in certifying to the purity and the merit of Wilkinson's Matchless Mineral Water. This natural mineral tonic, to my personal knowledge, is taken from a well three miles east of Greenville, in the exact condition in which it is sold. I have seen this water used, with wonderful success, for dyspepsia, indigestion, sore eyes and for eruptive diseases, sores and ulcers on man and animals. As a remedy for these troubles, I do not believe its equal exists. It is highly recommended by physicians for a number of diseases.
